6	Summary	An event of great historical significance took place in the year 1885. From 28 to 30 December of that year, 72 representatives and many visitors from all Presidencies and Provinces of India met at the first session of the National Congress held at Gokuldas Tejpal Sanskrit College in Bombay. The session marked the formation of the first truly all-India political organization. Since then its sessions were held at various places in India. The map shows venues of those places where sessions of the Indian National Congress were held during 1885-1947.
